Online courses

Build your confidence and competence in key areas of museum practice.

The courses are exclusively available to all individual members of the Museums Association. Through a combination of content and exercises, you can complete each course at your own pace, at a time and place that suits you.

There are currently seven courses online: Working Ethically; Working with Collections; Working with Community Partners; Working with the Learning and Engagement Manifesto, Supporting Anti-Racism, Introducing Decolonisation, Taking Action on Climate Justice. Three more courses will be added in the next year.

Annual Conference

The MA's annual conference takes place at Sage, Gateshead and Newcastle, and online 7-9 November.

Conference looks at the latest issues affecting the sector as well as a range of practical sessions, and networking events.

Running it online and in person means everyone has the opportunity to take part.

Student members are invited to apply to volunteer at the conference and in doing so get a free place at the event.
